1. 25X1C Between 15 and 18 April 1951, the Soviet 100th Motor Vehicle Repair Shop, [REDACTED] was located in the northwestern section of the Koenig Georg Kaserne on Hammerweg, Dresden. The repair shop was operated by about 450 troops, mostly of the 1915 through 1918 classes, who were organized into three companies. All of the troops were skilled workmen. The repair shop, which had the cover designation XI/2 in correspondence with German firms, had its own ration supply point. *
2. The repair shop, which was assigned exclusively to the repair of wheeled vehicles, was made up of a fitting shop, a body shop, a varnishing shop, a spray-painting shop, a leather-working shop, a carpenter shop, a cylinder-grinding shop and a test stand. Most of the spare parts which could not be produced on the spot were delivered by the Phaenomen Firm in Zittau and the BMW Firm in Eisenach.
3. Towns from which the repair shop received vehicles for overhauling included Dresden, Meissen, Grossenhain, Oschatz, Lomatzsch, Koenigsbrueck, Kamenz, Freiberg, Pirna, Bischofswerda, Annaberg, Sebnitz, Bad Schandau and Rechenberg-Bienen-muehle. The repair slips on the vehicles bore only cover designations, such as XV, XXII, IX/2 and X/4, [REDACTED] 25X1B
